

California School of Professional Psychology

Will You Leave a Legacy?

With a simple gift that costs nothing during your lifetime, you can make a transformational difference.

What Your Legacy Could Do

Thank you for your interest in the important mission of California School of Professional Psychology. Every gift is important to us and shows that you share our vision. If California School of Professional Psychology is one of your most important charitable causes, you can make it part of your legacy. When you remember California School of Professional Psychology in your will, you leave a lasting legacy to your values as you help continue our work far into the future.

Why Include a Charitable Gift in Your Will?

1. It's simple to do. It can be as easy as including language stating, "I give ten percent of the net value of my estate to California School of Professional Psychology."
2. You can change your mind. We won't receive the gift until after your death. During your lifetime, you can amend anything you choose, i.e., beneficiaries, amounts, etc.
3. Tax-wise, it could be beneficial. Gifts to qualified charitable organizations reduce the value of your estate for estate tax purposes.
4. It's an easy way to support California School of Professional Psychology, and we'd be grateful for your gift. Bequests of every size build our future financial strength.

How you include a gift in your will or revocable trust depends on what you want to accomplish, and what you want to give to California School of Professional Psychology. Here are some options:

1. Give a percentage of your estate — e.g., "I give 25% of the net value of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes to California School of Professional Psychology."
2. Give a percentage of the residue of your estate — the amount left after specific bequests have been given to individuals and organizations; e.g., "I give 25% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to California School of Professional Psychology."
3. Give a specific dollar amount or item of property; e.g., "I give California School of Professional Psychology $25,000" or "I give California School of Professional Psychology 100 shares of IBM stock."

Let Your Legacy Mirror Your Passion

Besides choosing how your bequest will come to us, you also have a say in how it will be used and acknowledged here:

- Make the gift unrestricted — it will be used for the top priority need identified by the leadership of California School of Professional Psychology;
- Make the gift restricted, i.e., to support a specific area of interest;
- Set up a named fund, e.g., the Family Fund for Research;
- Memorialize or honor a loved one: “This gift is made in memory of my loving husband, a friend of California School of Professional Psychology.”

The correct legal name of California School of Professional Psychology is:

CSPP at Alliant International University, a tax exempt organization located in San Francisco, CA.
